The Arts in and around the Community...

*Don't miss this - Chaska Valley Family Theater invites you to "ANNIE" opening for a run at Chanhasen High School on November 29th. Several show dates and times exist but get your tickets now as advanced seating reservations are recommended. Tickets can be accessed through the CVFT website at www.cvft.org.

*Chanhasen Dinner Theatres invites you to a concert event that will help you crank your holiday spirit all the way up! From December 5-8, join an 8-piece all-star cast of musicians at the Rock and Roll Xmas Spectacular as they rock their way through Christmas classics - and create a few of their own - in a show that delivers as much fun as Santa himself. The Rock and Roll Xmas Spectacular is a multimedia, musical extravaganza that mixes rock 'n roll, hilarious stories and parodies with your favorite yuletide songs as you've never heard them before. For tickets, contact the CDT box office by calling 952-934-1525 or visit www.chanhassendt.com.

Happy Thanksgiving from the Arts Consortium!

The Arts Consortium of Carver County wishes all art-lovers, artists, arts promoters, supporters, fans, civic leaders, educators, and community members a Happy Thanksgiving. We are so thankful for your support of the Arts Consortium of Carver County and recognize your commitment and dedication to promoting the arts as an integral part of a healthy and vibrant community.

The Arts are essential! They improve the quality of life in our cities. They enhance community development; spur urban renewal; attract new businesses; draw tourism dollars; and create an environment that attracts skilled, educated workers and builds our third millennium workforce. Thank you for your role in advancing the arts in our contemporary culture.

Our Annual Membership Drive is Underway... Join Us!

By now you should have received a 2014 ACCC membership drive packet in your home mail. We welcome you as a new or ongoing member in the work of the Arts Consortium of Carver County. We appreciate your membership dollars and the gifts and donations we receive regularly. This impactful financial giving supports and sustains the organization allowing us to more fully promote the arts throughout the county.

This year, thanks in very large part to our community and business partners, we are able to offer you a wide array of tangible arts-related benefits to go along with the altruistic benefit of membership in the Arts Consortium. Local promotion and support of the arts is critical to a vibrant community and we are pleased to present these benefits as a reciprocal investment in sustaining and supporting the arts community here in Carver County.

If you would like additional membership drive materials to share with friends and neighbors, businesses and organizations, be sure to let us know. We would be more than happy to get additional information into your hands!

Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook...

The ACCC has recently launched some additional social media opportunities and we encourage your use of, and involvement with these great communication tools.

The Arts Consortium has had a Facebook page for quite some time. Be sure to like us and use the page. In addition, we are now a visible presence on Twitter and have a new LinkedIn group. Our Twitter handle is @ArtsCarverCty.

Follow us and retweet our
